

The Great Auk's Great Escape: Be an Ocean Detective

The great auk might be extinct, but all of the creatures below (drawn by Joceline Hildrey) can still be found in the Hebrides today.

Can you find them in the book? Can you identify them? (list below)

How many have you seen in real life?

Shore crab, oyster catcher, gannet, mouse,
Soay sheep, common seal, mackerel,
common gull, shag, puffin
